THE OCHRS

DIVERSITY COUNCIL

The OCHRS Diversity Council is a group of OCHRS members who have volunteered to serve the chapter by providing input, expertise, guidance, and assistance in driving a greater awareness and engagement of Diversity within the OCHRS chapter, the HR community, and the business community. The council meets regularly to strategize and plan Diversity programs and practices. If you have input, ideas, or suggestions, please reach out to any member of the council.

Bradley Davidson, MS, SPHR

Brad is on the board of directors of OCHRS, serving as the Vice-President of Diversity. He is the Director of Human Resources for The Hartford Financial Services Group. Brad earned his Bachelor's in Management of Human Resources from Southern Nazarene University and his Master of Science in Industrial and Organizational Psychology from Kansas State University.

Gayle Barrett

Gayle is on the board of directors and is the general counsel for OCHRS. She is a director with the Oklahoma City law firm of Crowe and Dunlevy. She earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma and her Juris Doctorate degree with high distinction from Oklahoma City University. Gayle is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and is one of the leading employment attorneys in Oklahoma.

Beverly J. Glover

Beverly is the Senior HR Manager with responsibility for organizational development and diversity at Johnson Controls. Beverly previously worked for KOCO-TV as primary anchor of the first Saturday morning newscast in Oklahoma City, host of her own minority affairs talk show and, ultimately, HR Director for the station. Beverly is excited to be part of OCHRS's diversity council and hopes we will be able to address some of the more difficult aspects of diversity that others might lack the courage to broach.

Veronica Blakely-Kudrna

Veronica is the HR Generalist at Duncan Equipment Company. She earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Central Oklahoma and her MBA from Southern Nazarene University. Veronica brings a rich understanding and passion for diversity. Veronica volunteered to be part of the Diversity Council because she believes that human resources professionals must take the lead toward diversity by embracing the value of our differences in the companies we have been appointed to lead.

Damon Hayes-Milligan

Damon is an HR Consultant at Nextep. He earned his BBA in Management Information Systems and his BBA in Human Resources Management from the University of Central Oklahoma. Damon brings a passion for diversity to OCHRS and the Diversity Council. He volunteered to serve as panelist for our 2009 chapter diversity program and continues to bring his commitment to diversity to his new role on the council.

Kathie Sanders

Kathie is the Vice President of Human Resources for World Neighbors, an international development organization working in Asia, Africa and Latin America, headquartered in Oklahoma City. Kathie has over 15 years experience in nonprofit human resource management. She holds degrees in organizational leadership and human resource management, as well as a master's degree in adult education. At World Neighbors, Kathie is responsible for providing corporate leadership and oversight for all aspects of human resources within the organization, including both U.S. & international employees and U.S.-based volunteers.
