

O C H R S

Press Release For Immediate Release

Contact:
Bradley Davidson, SPHR
Vice-President, Public Relations
www.ochrs.org

Full Article Followed by Summary

###

Oklahoma City Human Resource Society Receives 2002 Chapter Merit Award

May 21, 2003 - Oklahoma City – The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) announced today that the Oklahoma City Human Resource Society (OCHRS) has been awarded 2002 Chapter Merit Award status. This award recognizes excellence in chapter operations and a commitment to providing meaningful programs and services to its members.

“By achieving this award, this chapter distinguishes itself as an outstanding organization dedicated to the professional advancement of its members and the advancement of the human resource management profession,” commented Elizabeth Knight, SHRM’s Vice-President of Member/Chapter Relations.

Greg Davis, President of the OCHRS, added, “The OCHRS is honored to be recognized by our national organization for excellence in our commitment to our profession and our local HR professionals.”

(continued on page 2)

O C H R S

The Oklahoma City Human Resource Society is an organization dedicated to the development of Human Resource Professionals in the Oklahoma City Area. OCHRS offers programs to keep HR professionals on the cutting edge of management practices and business trends affecting the labor force. Individuals interested in joining OCHRS may learn more and download an application at www.ochrs.org. Applicants to OCHRS must be members of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the national Human Resource professional organization. Information about SHRM membership is available at www.shrm.org.

###

Summary

- The Oklahoma City Human Resource Society has received the 2002 Merit Award status from the Society for Human Resource Management.
- The Merit Award recognizes excellence in chapter operations and a commitment to providing meaningful programs and services to its members.
- For more information, visit OCHRS online at www.ochrs.org or email davis@ochrs.org.